DOT is an Equal Opportunity Employer

All qualified applicants will be considered regardless of political affiliation, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, disability, or other non-merit factors. DOT provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify us. Decisions on granting reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Why Work For Us? Transportation impacts every facet of American life, providing people access to work, school, loved ones, and nature's rich bounty. The U.S. Department of Transportation is committed to transportation excellence and strives to create the best possible integrated air, land, and sea transportation system for America. As a DOT employee, you will become a part of the dedicated workforce who work day-to-day to make measurable improvements in our transportation system, the security of our nation, and the quality of American life.

The Federal Railroad Administration, an Operating Administration under the Department of Transportation, was created to promote and enforce safety throughout the U.S. railroad system, rehabilitate the Northeast Corridor rail passenger services, consolidate Federal support for rail transportation, and support research and development for rail transportation for passengers, railroad employees and the general public.

Summary Of The Essential Job Functions: As a Supervisory Information Technology Specialist, you will be required to:

- Serve as the Staff Director with responsibility for the systems analysis, design, development, security and operation of all automated systems for the Office of Safety.
- Administer the Railroad Safety Information Reporting System, which is the nationwide source of railroad statistics on accidents, casualties, rail-highway crossings and State and Federal safety inspection of railroads.
- Provide management of the Office of Safety web site, including oversight of the security, layout, format and content, and the special web site called SafetyData.
- Provide direction for security, feasibility, design, analysis, and implementation of new systems for resource allocation planning and oversight.
- Manage the regulatory and negotiated rulemaking for the accident/incident reporting and collateral regulations with railroad management and railroad labor organizations.
- Serve as the COTR for the Division for database processing, web maintenance and other related activities.
- Carry out personnel management responsibilities for the Division.
- Meet equal opportunity and work force diversity objectives of the FRA.
- Represent the FRA on technical and professional committees dealing with rail safety related systems analysis, designs and developmental activities.
- Assign and direct the planning, development and technical direction of statistical research programs.
- Chair the IT Capital Planning Working Group for the FRA.
- Serve as Project Manager for the regional information technology specialists.
- Adhere to Federal CIO guidelines and mandates to include OMB requirements for IT security and capital planning, and enterprise architecture.

What Are The Minimum Qualifications For This Position?

You must have at least one year of specialized experience in or directly related to the essential job functions described above. For Federal employees this experience must have been at the next lower grade level. If you want us to consider experience you obtained outside the Federal Government, it must have been at that same level of complexity.

What Are The Required Knowledge, Skills And Abilities For This Job?

- Demonstrated proficiency in organizing and conducting analysis of transportation safety data.
- Knowledge of the capabilities and limitations of advanced computer software.
- Skill in applications-systems design techniques to conduct feasibility studies, specifications development and system design for a nationwide Railroad Safety Information System.
- Mastery of advanced IT Applications Development principles, concepts and practices in order to advise policy making officials.
- Knowledge of current IT Applications Development equipment, trends and government policies to direct the Office of Safety computer program.
- Skill in data processing, statistical and operation research.
- Ability to serve as an expert representative of the agency with government officials and railroad labor and management officials.
- Ability to effectively communicate in writing.
- Ability to supervise a staff.
- Ability to lead a diverse workforce, including: creating a culture that fosters high standards of ethics; developing strategies to maximize employee potential; developing performance plans and monitoring performance; resolving conflicts; fostering workforce diversity on the staff; and recognizing staff contributions.
- Ability to manage IT Applications Development Projects.
- Knowledge of performance based contracting techniques.

Other Special Job Requirements

- If selected, you will be required to serve a one-year probationary period for newly appointed supervisors, unless you previously have completed a supervisory or managerial probationary period. Satisfactory completion of the supervisory probationary period is a prerequisite to continuation in the position.

How Will The Qualified Applicants Be Further Evaluated And Rated To Identify The Best Qualified?

If you are basically qualified for this job, you will be further evaluated on the quality and extent of your total accomplishments, experience and education related to the knowledge, skills and abilities listed below, if any. We also may consider your performance appraisal, awards, and relevant training. Your ranking will measure the degree to which your background matches the demands of this position.

What Employee Benefits Do We Provide? The Federal Government offers excellent benefits, flexible work schedules and family-friendly programs. You will receive paid annual leave and sick leave. This is permanent position and you will be eligible for retirement, health insurance, life insurance and Long Term Care insurance. A brief summary of the Federal benefits for permanent employees can be found at www.usajobs.opm.gov/EI61.htm.

Before You Go Any Further, Here Are Some Other Things You Need to Know

- United States citizenship is required. (Proof of citizenship will be required to be shown upon appointment.)
- If you are a male between the ages of 18 and 26 or were born after December 31, 1959, certification is required at the time you are employed that you have registered with the Selective Service for the draft, unless Selective Service has approved a waiver for you.
- Applicants must meet the qualification requirements by the closing date of the announcement. Federal applicants also must meet time-in-grade requirements by the closing date.
- If you are selected or among the best qualified candidates for this position, you will be subject to a determination of your suitability for Federal employment.
- Before being hired you will be required to sign and verify the accuracy of the information in your application if you have not done so using an application form such as the OF 612.
- If an FRA employee is selected, travel and transportation expenses will be paid if the selection results in a promotion OR for a geographical reassignment if the FRA selectee occupies a position that has significantly different duties from that of this position vacancy. If a candidate outside FRA is selected, travel and transportation expenses will not be paid.
- The FRA has determined that seniority rights, leaves of absence, and reemployment rights generally constitute an actual or an appearance of a conflict of interest. New employees may be required to divest themselves of such rights immediately upon hire if these rights are determined to constitute an actual or appearance of a conflict of interest. If new employees are permitted to retain such rights, the rights must be divested at the end of the one year probationary period. No waivers of this requirement will be granted.
- If selected, you will be subject to the Standards of Ethical Conduct applicable to all DOT employees.
- FRA employees are prohibited from owning railroad stock, except, under certain circumstances, as part of a diversified mutual fund.
- Applicants with “competitive status” as current or former Federal Government employees may be given first consideration.

How To Apply For This Position

- You must submit your current SF-171 (Application for Federal Employment), Resume, or an OF-612 (Optional Application for Federal Employment). You may choose which form to submit provided it contains all required information. Required information is listed in the section below labeled “Here’s What Your Application Must Contain.”

- For maximum consideration, tell us how you meet the "Knowledge, Skills and Abilities (KSAs)" for this position. The KSAs for this position are found above.
- For Federal applicants, a complete performance appraisal is required. It must be current – meaning it was issued to you within the past year – and it must be official – meaning it appraises your performance over a normal rating cycle in your present job and has been signed by your supervisor. If you are unable to submit your current performance appraisal, please tell us why. You also should submit a copy of your latest SF-50 "Notification of Personnel Action" that reflects career or career-conditional tenure.
- To be considered for selection priority under the Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP) or the Interagency Career Transition Assistance Program (ICTAP), you must submit appropriate certification that you are eligible. You also must meet the job's minimum qualifications and rate at least Highly Qualified on the crediting plan for each knowledge, skill and ability requirement that is listed in this announcement.
- The "Area of Consideration" section shown on the first page indicates who may apply for this position. All United States citizens may apply. Candidates may be eligible to be considered three ways: as a current or former Federal Government employee with "status;" as a "nonstatus" candidate (candidates with no prior Federal Government service); and as a candidate eligible for a special appointment authority. You must submit a complete application package for each type of consideration you are eligible and wish to be considered. You also must submit appropriate proof of your eligibility as a status candidate and as a candidate eligible for a special appointment authority, including your eligibility for veteran preference.

Where To Send Your Application

- You may mail or deliver your application to the Federal Railroad Administration, Office of Human Resources, 1120 Vermont Avenue, NW., 6th Floor, Washington, DC 20590.
- If you are faxing your application, please limit the application to a maximum of 20 pages and include a cover sheet. Our fax number is 202/493-6169. We will not accept applications faxed from a Federal Government fax machine. You may email your application to teresa.overmier@fra.dot.gov.
- ALL applications must be in our office or postmarked by the closing date of the announcement.
- Applications mailed in a Government envelope will not be accepted.
